

Over the Counter Items to Avoid When Taking Warfarin (Coumadin®)

Please note: This listing is not all-inclusive. Patients need to verify each item they use while taking Warfarin with their pharmacist and/or physician.

Acetaminophen

Actifed® products	Alka-Seltzer® products	Allerest® products
Anacin® products	Bayer Select® products	BC® products
Benadryl® products	Bromoseltzer®	Bufferin® products
Chlor-Trimeton® products	Comtrex® products	Contac® products
Coricidin® products	DayQuil® products	Dimetapp® products
Diurex® products	Dristan® products	Drixoral® products
Excedrin® products	Goody's® headache powders or tablets	MediFlu® products
Midol® products	NyQuil® products	Pamprin® products
Sinarest® products	Robitussin Night-Relief® products	SineAid® products
SineOff® products	Sinutab® products	Sominex® products
Sudafed® products	TheraFlu® products	Tylenol® products

Alcohol (Beverages and Medications)

Aspirin

Alka-Seltzer® products	Anacin® products	Ascriptin® products
Bayer Select products	BC® products	Bufferin® products
Coricidin® products	Dristan® products	Ecotrin® products
Excedrin® products	Midol® products	SineOff® products
Goody's® headache powders or tablets

Bismuth Subsalicylate Pepto-Bismol® products

Cimetidine Tagamet-HB® products

Ibuprofen

Advil® products	Bayer Select® products	Dimetapp® products
Excedrin® products	Motrin® products	Nuprin® products

Methylsalicylate Ointment, Topical Ben-Gay® products

Quinine

Legatrin® products	Q-Vel® products	Tonic water
--------------------	-----------------	-------------

Ranitidine Zantac-75® products

Vitamins (Especially vitamin C, vitamin E, and vitamin K)

Herbal Medications

Dietary Supplements (Ensure®, Sustacal®, Boost®, etc.)